

Academia Santa Rosa de Lima
Bayamón, Puerto Rico
academiasantarosa@asrpr.org

Bilingual Program: Syllabus 11th Grade
2023-2024

Course Title: American Literature

Credit: 1.00

Course Prerequisite: English 10th

Hours: 5 hours a week

Teacher: Raffol's

Email: araffols@asrpr.org

Course Description: Eleventh Grade English Language Arts is a course study which engages students in a varied exploration of humanities through the modes of reading, writing, grammar and usage, critical thinking, reading comprehension, vocabulary building, speech and pronunciation, speaking and listening. Structures studied in class are reinforced through the English class platform.

Standards:

- Listening
- Speaking
- Reading
- Writing
- Language

Textbook: Edusystem Online Modules

Novels: The Diary of Anne Frank & Outsiders

Unit	Timeframe
Foundations of a New Nation to 1760	August
Foundations of a New Nation to 1760: Drama	September
Novel: The Diary of Anne Frank	October
Independence	November
American Romanticism	December
The Civil War 1860-1865	January
Realism and Naturalism 1865-1914	February and March
Novel: Outsiders	April
Modernism 1914-1949	May

Materials: needed and used in class a must!

- Notebook
- Spanish/English Dictionary
- Personal Computer
- Stick Glue/ scissors/pencils/construction paper/2 medium Canvas/brushes, acrylic paint/poster cardboards 11x14/white paper/ loose-leaf paper
- paper towel, 70% alcohol, Lysol/ Clorox wipes

Justification: Oral and written communications are a fundamental and a compelling tool to develop and enhance in a student for the future. The students will use these tools to help and enable their ability in applying language skills in an integrated form. Also, to solve problems for personal fulfillment and to work towards making changes in our society in a responsible way. Lastly, being critical thinkers, communicators respecting different points of views and diversity.

Objectives:

- Students will build upon their knowledge to improve their communication, critical thinking, and listening skills.
- Students will expand their oral comprehensibility and write complete sentences, standard paragraphs, and content-based essays by learning to utilize level-appropriate conventions of grammar and punctuation with minimal errors.
- Students will be able to communicate creatively, reflectively, and critically in the English language in order to be ready for twelfth grade.

Evaluation Criteria:

- Tests
- Final Test (1 per semester if needed)
- Quizzes
- Assessments
- Special Projects
- Homework's
- Dictations
- Socialized discussions
- Participation in class 100pts
- Daily work during class-notebook inventory 100pts
- Oral Presentations
- Essays

Course Requirements:

1. Meet the evaluation criteria.
2. The student will be responsible for keeping a record of the grades per trimester.
3. Maintain the school uniform neat, complete and in accordance with the Student Manual.
4. If the student is tardy or absent must bring a justified excuse that includes the date, reason, and signature of the parent or guardian.
5. Treat the teacher and fellow students with respect.
6. Daily Work must always be completed.
7. Replace the tasks and assessments that are covered in class when its absent. (Is the responsibility of the student).
8. If the student is absent for a test, he or she must be ready to take a reposition test at their return to regular classes.
9. If the parent's want to meet with the teacher to monitor an academic or behavioral process, they can request it by calling the school (787) 798-2829. Appointment schedules are only from Tuesday to Thursday.

Policies:

- Cell phone: Student's may not use cell phones during class unless explicitly approved on a specific day for instructional purposes by the teacher. Upon entering the classroom, all students must place their cell phone in their assigned area of the classroom or other specified assigned location at the front of the room by the teacher. Once placed in the cell phone area/holder, students may not access during class time, unless they have an early departure form school premises.
- Plagiarism: Plagiarism is presenting another's words or ideas as though they are entirely one's own. Plagiarism is an Honor Code Violation. Acts of plagiarism can include, but are not limited to: 1. Using words or ideas from a published source or the internet without proper permission, 2. Using the work of another student(copying another student's homework, composition, or project in entirety or in part) 3. Using excessive editing suggestions of another student, teacher, parent, turbo o paid author.
- Reasonable Accommodations: All the reasonable accommodations for the needs of the students will be made in accordance with the Americans with Disability Act (ADA).

Explanatory Note

The topics contained in this syllabus are a goal outlined by the educator. The number of topics we cover may vary according to the needs of the students or changes in the school calendar, among others. Therefore, the information presented above may be subject to changes.

Raffol's, August 2023

Reviewed by: _____
Director

Date: _____

*Raffol's
2023-2024
11th grade Syllabus Agreement Form*

I, _____ have read and acknowledged all of the policies (parent/guardian name) and procedures laid out in this syllabus for Raffol's 11th grade English classroom. I understand that by acknowledging this syllabus, I agree to all rules, policies, and procedures implemented in Raffol's classroom syllabus.

Parent/Guardian Signature: _____

Date: _____

I, _____ have read and acknowledged all of the policies (student name) and procedures laid out in this syllabus for Raffol's 11th grade English classroom. I understand that by acknowledging this syllabus, I agree to all rules, policies, and procedures implemented in Raffol's classroom syllabus.

Student Signature: _____

Date: _____